It can be difficult to know where to start – and that's why we're here to guide you every step of the way.

From hosting a funeral service at a Mosque, performing the service at our Park, bringing your own Imam or having a family member lead the prayers, we are here to help you navigate this tricky time.

We work with a number of reputable Funeral Directors associated with many different Mosques across the London area. Our team can provide you with further information.

We understand that our community may follow one of the Four Schools of Thought and want to ensure that we are accommodating all our families in feeling fulfilled at a crucial stage. Through working with a Shariah-board, we have developed an inclusive Janazah Salah, which is the first approach to be scholarly-approved and serves all member of our community, Alhamdulillah.

Whichever option you decide, we are here to support you.

Burial Service

Whether you're looking for a traditional grave, a premium grave, or a family garden for their final resting place, we have options that are all carefully considered within the Islamic faith and will cater for your loved one's final wishes.

There are no hidden add-ons, and all our options include the plot, burial, service and grave plaque.

In line with Shariah law, all graves at Eternal Gardens are uniform, natural and simple. All burial plots are in soft virgin ground and are raised to form a small mount which is covered with grass. All graves are aligned in facing the direction of Mecca with beautifully simple plaques placed on top of graves.

As part of our solutions to alleviate the burial space crisis affecting our community, we have invested several years of research into developing our Duo Graves Fatwa, the first duo-burial Islamic model (two separate and distinctive compartments within one plot of land) to be accepted by the shariah board in London, Alhamdulillah!

Burial plots

Traditional Grave

Our Traditional Graves are located in the middle grounds. Burials within these plots take place under a next in line approach. Each is a Duo Grave and is identified by a simple named plaque.

Premium Grave

Our Premium Graves are the first row of plots located along our pathways, making these easily accessible for families to visit loved ones. Each is a Duo Grave and is identified by a simple named plaque.

For advanced planning these plots can be reserved, this assures some families that they will have plots close together and in the exact space they prefer.

Family Grave

Our Family Graves are located in a dedicated area, bordered by a low wall of shrubs, allowing peace and privacy for families. These plots are made up of a minimum of two Duo Graves, along with a dedicated named plaque.

These Family Graves can be reserved by families wishing to plan in advance.

Interest-free Instalment Plan

We are pleased to offer a Shariah-compliant instalment plan. Given that interest is haram, you can rest assured that our plan includes zero added interest. You can secure a plot at today's prices and make easy and regular payments over a 10-month period.

Reduce the cost of your burial

Planning ahead can significantly reduce the cost of your burial. Everything grows more expensive over time and the same applies for funerals and burial plots. Paying for your plot in advance will likely save money in the long run.

With the costs of burials rising, you can reserve a plot with us at today's prices.

Planning ahead

In today's context, it is highly recommended that we plan ahead, given the population of the UK and the lack of appropriate burial space. We encourage our Muslim brothers and sisters to protect yourselves and your loved ones by planning in advance, to avoid having to compromise when it comes to the final resting place.

The planning process is simple, and we are here to support you with years of expertise.

1 Understanding your needs

Discuss burial options with loved ones and how many plots you may require. One plot is sufficient for two people and will incur an additional burial fee. Speak to a member of the team who have years of experience in supporting families just like yours.

2 Select the right option for your specific needs

Visit our Park to see our plots and choose the best option for your needs. When reserving a plot, our expert team will walk you through this simple process in which you will need to provide the relevant details such as name, address and contact details.

3 Peace of mind

You will receive the Grant of Exclusive Right of Burial and other important paperwork. Ensure these are kept safe and available for the right moment. At this stage, payment can be made in full or through our halal instalment option. Grant of burial rights will be released to you upon payment. That's it! You have successfully secured yourself and loved ones for the future, Alhamdulillah.

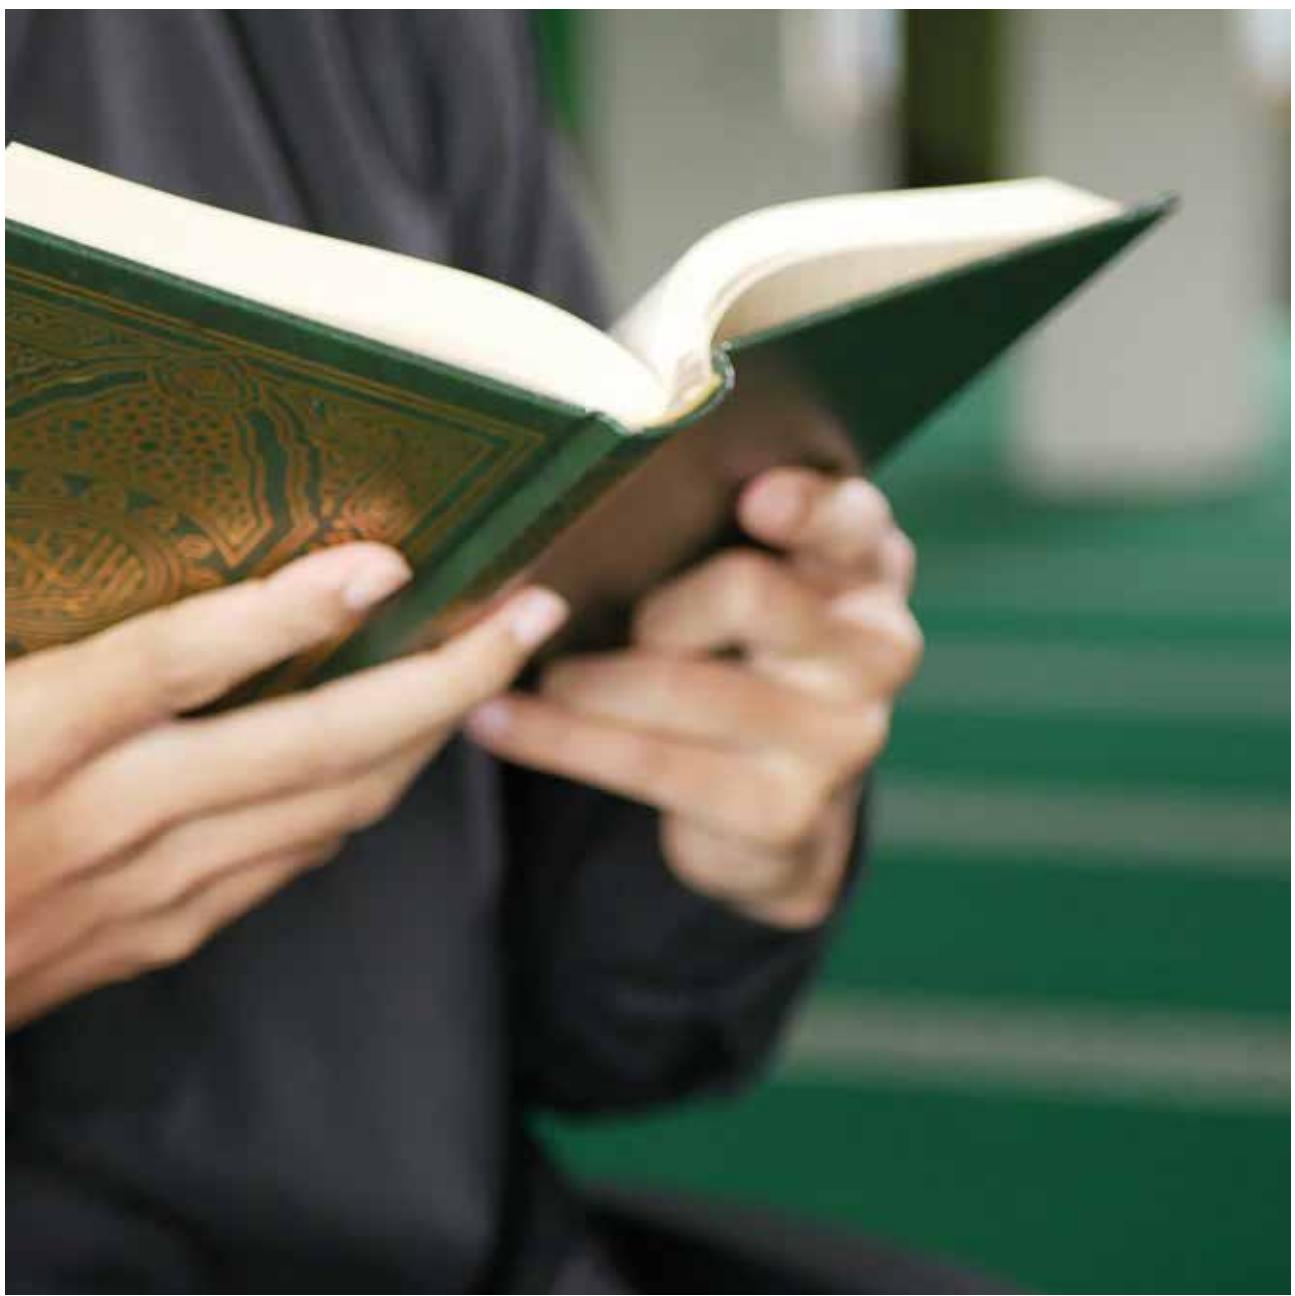

The Prophet S.A.W said:

The one who remembers death the most and is best in preparing for it. Those are the wisest.

(Ibn Majah: 4259)

Babies and children

The loss of a child is possibly the most painful experience for a parent. For families facing this loss, we have a dedicated Children of Jannah area where they can be laid to rest. We are here to support you and help you in any way we can, alongside signposting to a partner charity who work predominately with those from an Islamic faith and are committed to providing confidential support.

We can arrange burials for pregnancy loss under 24 weeks as well as children aged up to 18 years. There are no charges for the burials of any babies or children.

Sadaqah Jariyah

Sadaqah Jariyah is the act of giving in a way that keeps on giving. There are many acts that can increase our good deeds and lead to reward both today and in the Hereafter.

Here at Eternal Gardens, we offer several options for families who wish to accrue ongoing rewards from Allah (SWT) for their loved ones. Speak to a member of our friendly team to explore these options and choose the right one for you.

Please note, these options are subject to availability and are dependent on spacing within the Park. At Eternal Gardens, we endeavor to create the best offerings for our families and are continuously looking for ways to improve; please get in touch with our team to stay updated.

The graves at Eternal Gardens are beautifully maintained and cared for by the team and the area is always kept immaculate making it very peaceful and comfortable when visiting our father. The brothers have been a huge help in making the process of his passing manageable for our family, and have shown nothing but compassion, respect and attention with the graves as well as our family.
